Wedding Day Timing

We take many things into play when organising a start time for your wedding day!

We consider;

- Hair style
- Hair type
- Weather and time of year
- Skin and skin type
- Location
- Number of people
- Travel

There are many variables in a wedding day including unplanned interruptions, unfavourable weather conditions and more. Here are just a few scenarios;

- Humidity, rain and wind can effect hair lasting so we look at order of people the morning of the wedding
- If someone has oily skin they may potentially be later in the list so we work with your make up artist around this
- We consider travel time to a venue
- We are considering photographers and videographer and making sure we are close to complete prior to their arrival so we are not rushed and neither are they. There is nothing worse then all your vendors wanting a piece of you At the same time.
- We allow time for unplanned interruptions like a surprise visit form a relative or time to check flowers or decorations or longer then expected hair or make-up changes. We factor in time so you don't run late

We have our terms and conditions to outline what we require from our bridal parties to ensure your day runs smoothly. We have had many years experience and many stories to tell. This is why our list of terms is extensive and ever changing so to make sure we take care of you and you get the result you want with less stress.

We often plan to be finished 1.5 - 2 hours prior to your ceremony to allow time for unexpected interruptions, food and photos. We would prefer you have time to relax than feel rushed.

You can also book us for an "Honorary Bridesmaid Service" where we stay back with you and your bridal party. This is an extra cost that must be booked and paid for at the time of booking and is dependant on availability. We use many techniques to assist in giving the best hold to any style and can discuss any other options with you at your time of booking.

We give you a start and approximate finish time. The in between is worked out on the day collaborating with your make up artist to adhere to our schedule. This is great to give to your photographer and videographer.

We just ask all people are present at the start time so we can determine the best outcomes for you.

There is no need to draw up a plan of who goes when as we will work with your make-up artist using the previous scenarios.

We often do the bride second or third last so that when it is time for more wedding vendors to arrive that your service has limited interruptions and the focus is on you. Again this is all dependant on people's hair types and desired styles but that is our speciality.

We suggest getting any of your finer details ready and allocating one of your bridesmaids to assist your photographer and/or videographer so you can relax and enjoy your hair and make up experience. You can also allocate another bridesmaid the job of tidying the area where you are having photos.

When organising your timeline talk with us first so we can answer any of your questions. Each bridal party will be different as each head of hair is different. We are the first people you see in the day so we have Many questions that determine our schedule so we will talk you through every step of the morning with us.

In my 15 plus years doing bridal hair I have not had a single person late! Myself and my team pride ourselves on our service and experience and being aware of how we start the day for you and the other wedding vendors. Timing is everything and we have you covered!!!!

We turn people away for bookings and you have taken that time and will incur the cost if after the invoice due date.

Your invoice must be paid on or prior to the due date or we reserve the right to cancel any booking and you forfeit your booking fee.

Hair Trial

It is not compulsory to have a hair trial but is beneficial

We suggest booking your hair trial once you have booked wedding date or at least two months in advance and two months prior to wedding day. Our hair trial appointments are available from Wednesday to Friday. At your trial we do discuss more timing and alternatives to hairstyles for your bridal party.

Planning

On a wedding day we will set up at one location. If you have multiple locations we require to set up there is an extra set up fee. If we have extra administration time required to assist in planning and timing there are costs involved. We can assist in your wedding morning coordination and have many year experience to provide an extensive planning service on request. We can work with your make-up artist and other vendors to ensure your timing and that you have the morning of your dreams.

Our wedding morning timing is usually booked in at the time of booking and can be found on your invoice. Any changes to this need to be confirmed at the time of booking and any time we have to make extensive changes we may have to apply the above mentioned cost for administration time. This is required only if multiple changes are made at a later date and we are required to act in a wedding planner roll.

This will also require payment of 50% payment of your invoice and is non refundable or transferrable.

Wedding day schedule

Please remember that once hair is finished then your stylist is finished. If you wish for your stylist to wait after completing hair styles it is an extra cost and can be quoted to you if you wish on booking. We do take bookings after weddings so can not guarantee we are able to stay back if requested on the day.

We will provide you with a hair start time and approximate finish time to allow for make-up completion, lunch and photos with minimal stress. ALL guests must be present at the allocated start time due to working with different hair types and working to timing with your make-up artist. You can request a different start time for flower girls but it MUST be arranged at booking.

Timing for the day is allocated at booking time and can be found on your invoice. You will also receive a calendar invite from our booking system.

Timing is set to ensure that all vendors are not rushing and are at their best as well as you feeling relaxed. If you are more than 15 minutes late for your organised start time a fee will incur for every half hour the stylist is waiting. Fees also apply if stylist is required to wait past completion time.

We discuss timing at your trial and we will confirm all details again the week prior to your special day. Our start times are between 7am and 9am. If you are requesting a start time outside these hours it must be requested on booking.

We will complete all hairstyles and suggest the bride is approximately second last for hair.

Please note on a wedding day we do not do touch ups for people that have done their own hair. We do not provide product or loan tools for people that have done their own hair. We can provide a service for another person at the cost outlined in our pricelist and is to be paid on the day. This is only possible if enough time remaining for the party and our other appointments.

We can not use tools that belong to someone else due to workplace health and safety.

Veil and Touch ups

We will put your veil in or show your bridesmaids how to put in for you. We will also show your bridesmaids how to remove on the day. If you require us to stay back later to put in your veil or for touch ups that is an extra cost and must be booked at time of booking to secure just like a normal appointment.

We do have some great techniques to ensure your veil is supported off the ground while you are finishing getting ready.

Your stylist will give you instructions on how to assist in your hair lasting from day to night. If instructions are not followed we can not ensure longevity of your hair. We may not have time to redo hair if it doesn't hold in this case. It may also be at an extra cost. This includes going outside too much especially during windy, rainy or humid weather, touching the hair with hands as oil will effect hair and steaming clothing once hair is done.

Honorary Bridesmaid Service

If you would like us to stay past our completion time (1.5-2 hours prior to ceremony time or when all styles and touch ups are complete) and until you are dressed this must be requested at the time of booking to book your time and a cost is involved. We ensure all vendors have ample time with you so if we are to stay it is during a period we are not performing services. We can assist with behind the scenes during this period if you wish to book this as an added service.

If you have not booked this service once the stylist is complete then they will leave. Our pricing is based on how many people and what services are booked and paid for and we are not booked for an entire day. Timing is set at the time of booking and on your invoice.

Cost of this service is quoted on enquiry.

House Keeping

All clothes steaming must be done prior so to ensure hair is not affected by the steam.

All people having hair done must shower (if they are wanting a shower) prior to our arrival to ensure hair is not affected and to ensure our timing for the day.

If you particularly want photos of hair being done please let us know prior to the day so we can provide a time for the photographer. If we have to stay back for extended periods after completion there may be an extra cost and suggest booking the Honorary Bridemaids Service. We do not wait for photographers unless bridesmaid service is booked.

Please ensure that there is someone to let us into the venue and that areas are clear for us to set up. This includes any bedding packed away and tables cleared prior to our arrival. This will ensure we adhere to our timing.

Please also ensure you have read our health policies around illness. Please notify us of any person having hair done is ill. We may refuse service for the safety of our team members and future brides.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Hair Trials

Do I need a trial?

No you don't need a trial but it is helpful for you to envisage the entire look. Sometimes people are unsure and a trial can help. I can organise a trial for you, a phone consultation, face to face consultation, Skype consultation or we can just discuss via email with photos. What ever you need to put your mind at ease. It is great to organise your make-up trial for the same day but is not necessary. We can assist in coordinating but an not guarantee it will be possible to get your appointments to align. Please also make sure you have a look at our wedding hair trial checklist.

When should I book a trial?

I would book a trial when you book your wedding. Weddings are every day of the week but Saturdays are the most popular day. We are finding we have limited Saturday appointments and high demand for a Saturday. If you are not sure at the time of your wedding booking please allow two months notice for a trial booking. Our regular trial days are Wednesday to Friday so please be prepared to book in advance to get a day that suits you.

What do I bring to a trial?

Things you may want to bring to a trial but not necessary;

- Pictures of what like and don't like
- Bring a friend or family member
- Veil and hairpieces and earrings
- Photos of dress

Please see our trial blog post and download our checklist!

When should I have a trial?

I always suggest approximately two months prior to your special day or event. I have also had many brides do the week prior to their wedding due to travel restrictions. It is up to you. We can make anything work. Two months is a good time frame because often your theme is set, your colour scheme and style picked and you have already looked at styles and maybe changed your mind a few times. As you get closer you have more of an overall picture of how things will look. I suggest booking a trial at the time of your booking especially if you require a Saturday appointment. Our main trial days are Wednesday to Friday around our wedding bookings.

How long does it take for a trial?

A trial can take up to 1.5 hours. I will do your trial and make adjustments for you and we discuss the finer details for the day to put your mind at ease. Please remember if you are wanting two different styles trialed you will need a longer appointment which must be organised on initial booking and may be at an extra cost.

Do bridesmaids need a trial?

Normally no but if you have someone with very difficult hair then it can help or if you are uncertain of style just one of your bridesmaids have a trial to help make that decision.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

On the day

How long per person on the day?

I have been specialising in bridal hair for many years and don't tend to take one hour per person but feel it is a good measure of time to assist in organising and in case of stoppages through out the morning. #### When do I wash my hair?

If you wash you hair 24 hours prior to you special day and blow dry straight (if not utilising natural curl). If anyone has extremely curly hair and is wanting a smoother style please pre straighten hair 24 hours before also. #### Do you need a time schedule?

No we will do that for you. We can give you timing for the morning working in with our recommended make up artist or your preferred make -up artist. I can assist in coordinating a start time to ensure a relaxing day and a schedule for you and your party for the morning.

Please read our Wedding timing blog post.

Do you travel for one person?

We travel for a minimum of 4 upstyles/ downstyle or the cost of 4 upstyles. We will travel for any occasion hairstyle.

Can you put my veil in?

On your special day I will complete everyone's hair and do final checks and touch ups. At the end I can put your veil in for you and show you some sneaky tricks to hold and carry your veil. I can also stitch your veil in for windy days. If you don't wish to have your veil in too early I can also give your bridal party a lesson on how to put it in. Any hair emergencies you can always call me. please read our Wedding confirmation blog post which includes information and videos on veils.

Can you do touch ups?

I do touch ups prior to leaving and always have touch up pins for you. I can stay after completion at an extra cost and can be quoted on enquiry.

This is called our Honorary Bridesmaid service. It must be booked at the time of booking to ensure we have the appointment time available. We can also come back to do style changes. It too can be quoted on via email.

I have my team at The Hair Artist Collective so we can accommodate as many people as you need and at more than one location. Please email for more information. Please note deposits still apply for each location and stylist with a minimum of 4 per location/ stylist.

How do I make sure my hair is healthy leading up to wedding?

Make sure you do a conditioning treatment one week prior to give moisture to close the cuticle therefor higher shine. For best results weekly home treatments are best using salon quality products.
